What to see:

Krakow is a very historical city with well-preserved monuments. Must see are Wawel Castle, Kanonicza street, Mariacki Church and Sukiennice. We strongly recommend underground museum “Podziemia Rynku” (ticket office and entrance are located in Sukiennice, on Main Market Square) where you can see and also experience how life in Krakow looked like a few centuries ago.

Another district worth seeing is also the jewish part of the city called “Kazimierz”, where ethnographic museum, Schindler's factory, old synagogues and old jewish cemetery are located.

Twice a day you can join free walking tour around city (but tip for a guide is well seen), and you can learn a little bit about the city both in historical and modern context.

We encourage you to visit National Museum, famous Krakow “Słowacki” Theatre and Philharmonic hall.

During Christmas holidays, on the Main Market Square (Rynek Główny) local craftsmen and farmers sell their products, so you can taste traditional Polish delicacies, buy handmade products and souvenirs, or listen to polish carols.

If you would like to attend music festivals or concerts in Krakow or in other polish cities, check out www.eventim.pl – on this site you can see the current list of upcoming events and you can also purchase tickets.

If cinema is your thing, in Krakow there are a lot of huge multiscreen cinemas (CinemaCity or Multikino) located in shopping malls such as Bonarka, Plaza and Galeria Kazimierz. If you want to see low-budget and less commercial productions you should visit small cinemas: „Kino pod Baranami” on the Rynek Główny 27 and „Kino Ars“ on Św. Tomasza 11.

Information about sightseeing, culture and current events is available on official Krakow website: <http://www.krakow.pl/english/>
