

Terms and conditions for students intake for part-time foreign studies in the academic year 2018/19

I. Recruitment deadline terms and conditions:

1. Positive result of qualifications related to level language proficiency.
2. Punctual submitting of all required documents for the given travel offer.
3. Recruitment usually takes place during the academic year preceding the travel. Students undergoing all kinds of programmes may apply for recruitment, providing that at the time of recruitment and travel their status is that of student/PhD student at Cracow University of Economics (with the exception of post-graduate study travel where the status of student/graduate is required). Students must be able to provide GPA for at least 1 semester completed. Requirements on level and year of studies are defined under the given exchange programmes or travel offers. Students on their 1st year of Bachelor's programme may apply only in the second (additional) recruitment which takes place in summer semester (only if they have GPA from min. 1 semester completed). Persons applying in their final year of Bachelor studies may go on part foreign studies in the following academic year, providing that they hold the status of student at the time of travel. In such cases travel may only take place during the spring semester (not applicable for 3,5 year technical studies). The student must submit to the coordinating unit confirmation of completion of Bachelor studies and status of Master's degree course student within one week of such fact occurring, but not later than a month before the planned travel for part studies abroad.
4. The applications of year 2, level II students shall not be considered. This may not apply in case of departures in the same academic year and student maintain an active student status during stay abroad or if certain offer has different specification and requirements (e.g. STEP programme, VELUX Scholarship, summer schools).
5. In case of planned mobility (studies and internship) in summer semester of given academic year, departure in winter semester during next academic year is not possible.
6. In case of applying for study programme and internship within one academic year duration and time of each exchange period can not coincide. Student is obliged to inform exchange coordinator about exact dates of each of planned mobilities (for studies and for training purposes).
7. If student applied for the internship programme in summer semester, then he may participate in exchange programme for study period in summer semester of the next academic year.
8. Students on their 2nd year of bachelor programme and on 1st year of master programme shall apply for exchange in winter semester in order to have to secure necessary time for formalities regarding recognition process, defending thesis and application procedure if willing to continue studies (final decision is up to University Recruiting Committee for short-term foreign exchanges).
9. Students have to be of a legal age (18 years) at the time of departure for exchange.
10. Concerning studies which require the payment of tuition fees (e.g. part-time studies, studies in the English language etc.) a student's participation in part foreign studies does not exempt the student from the need to pay such fee to CUE.

Detailed requirements regarding Erasmus+ programme:

Students may study abroad or do an internship abroad lasting not more than 12 month in total in each study cycle (bachelor, master, doctoral), regardless type of the mobility (studies or internship) and number of mobilities. Previous participation in programmes: MUNDUS, Erasmus („The Lifelong Learning Programme”), Erasmus+ , Scholarship and Training Fund, PO WER.

II. The following criteria shall be considered during the recruitment process (THESE REFER EXCLUSIVELY TO THE PERIOD OF STUDY):

1. Average grades for hitherto period of studies:

- Students participating in the recruitment process must submit a certificate on their average grades covering the period from the first semester of studies to the last semester completed at the time of submitting the documents. Students who, at the time of embarking on the recruitment procedure, have the approval of the Dean for individual plan of studies (ITZ) submit the certificate on their average grades for the period prior to the semesters, to which the mentioned approval refers.
- Concerning first, second and third level studies (BA, MA, PhD) and the uniform (long-cycle) Master’s studies the average mark for grades is confirmed by the corresponding Dean or other responsible unit.
- Concerning second level studies the average obtained on grades obtained at first level studies is taken into account. Students must provide, together with other application documents, confirmation from the Deans office confirming current status of CUE student.
- Applications submitted without GPA within the recruitment period shall not be processed.
- Applications with average grade below 3,4 shall not be processed.

2. Level of foreign language proficiency:

- Language recruitments are organised on B2 level.
- During recruitment consideration is given to the knowledge of only that language in which the student will be studying abroad (unless the given offer places other requirements)
- Recruitment of level of knowledge of the foreign language is performed by the CUE Language Centre (CJ) which sets out the conditions of awarding points and submits the results to the unit responsible for recruitment (not applicable in case of following STEP, VELUX, summer schools etc.)
- Information recruitment deadlines, conditions and results are available at: www.cj.uek.krakow.pl (section “stypendia”)

- Positive result of language qualifications from January 2015 on will be recognised. Results are available online: www.cj.uek.krakow.pl (section “stypendia”)

3. Confirmed participation in tuition conducted in foreign languages and foreign language programmes:

- Points are awarded for topic-related tuition or regular studies conducted in foreign languages. Topics conducted as part of philological studies or other studies in a foreign language are taken into account, providing that the graduation diploma of the given studies does not constitute the basis of exemption from an examination organised by the CJ. Details on Page 6.
- Points are not awarded for:
 - *foreign language courses
