The stay combines all positive features and privileges of being an Erasmus student and enables gaining the great load of knowledge and valuable international experience. Participation in the programme requires almost double amount of labour and engagement, but it also provides you with double amount of joy and satisfaction with completing it. And the most important thing is that the Double Diploma is recognizable all over the world.”

UNIVERSITY: FH MÜNSTER.

PROGRAMME: INTERNATIONAL MARKETING AND SALES.

LECTURES: 50:50 ENGLISH AND GERMAN

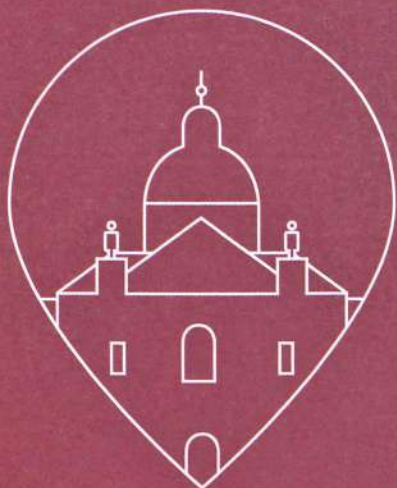

„The classes were attended mainly by the Germans, but there were also several Erasmus students at our year. The classes were very interesting, they were conducted mainly by trainees.

The amount of labour: intensive work for the whole year, a lot of presentations, group projects, written assignments, etc. The exams were quite difficult but within reason and not beyond the bounds of possibility.

Do Double Diploma help in finding the job?

The German diploma – definitely yes. After complementing the studies I've received the training connected with the major of studies in Germany and now I'm working at German company in Poland.”
